^a Fiscal years. Including deliveries under the following programs: (a) Military Assistance Program grants under the various Mutual Security Acts; (b) Foreign Military Sales, which consist of US-financed arms, US-guaranteed private arms credits, and US-approved commercial sales; and (c) Military assistance excess stocks, which involve surplus equipment that has been valued at 33 percent of the original acquisition value. For East Asia, the Military Assistance Service Funded program is included in the data through 1975. Countries receiving these funds in East Asia were Laos, South Korea, Thailand and South Vietnam. US data exclude some $700 million in naval equipment made avail able under the Ship Loan and Lease Program. All data reflect the latest available information as of September 1981.

^b Data are for fiscal years. Until 1972 US Department of Defense data did not include the Military Assistance Service Funded (MASF) program. The sharp increase in exports beginning in 1972 is accounted for to some extent by the inclusion of this category of assistance.

^c Includes Cuba, North Korea, and Yugoslavia.
